

Prayer Focus 25th February 2018

Unless the Lord builds a house, the work of the builders is wasted.

Unless the Lord protects a city, guarding it with sentries will do no good. Psalm 127:1

Almighty God and Eternal Father, forgive me for trying to make everything happen by my own efforts and relentless work. You can do far more to advance my work for your kingdom than all my worry and fretfulness could ever do. Please take the lead in every aspect of my life; defeat me in efforts not in harmony with your will and please empower those efforts which will bring you glory and others closer to your grace. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.

Our Lord God ,
We have worked without letting you work in us;
We have not let you watch over us;
We perversely cherish our busy, busy days.
By your very present Spirit give us the freedom
to let you work in us,
to let you care for us,
to let you fill our days,
that we may live, not in the strength of our own hands,
but in the strength that comes from life in you,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Family Prayer News:- Give thanks for the safe arrival of Rosemary & Rob's granddaughter Sophie.

Street of the Week:- St Mark's school & Little Birds Nursery

Three Christians have been killed in Wajir, north eastern Kenya by suspected Al-Shabaab militants. The militants attacked Qarsa Primary School killing two teachers, Kevin Shari and Seth Oluoch Odada; they also killed Seth's wife, Caroline. Seth and Caroline Odada were newlyweds.

PLEASE PRAY

For comfort to affected families

For swift action by authorities

For protection for Christian teachers who are often targeted because they work in Muslim areas

Pray for Syria, especially for the area of eastern Ghouta. Pray for the UN as it seeks to intervene.
